

Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine

- Four-year, accredited medical program
- Integrative, holistic approach to primary care medicine
- Diverse and rich clinical experience

NUNM's longstanding legacy of academic excellence speaks for itself. Become a primary care physician with an expertise in natural medicine. Learn the art, science, philosophy and practice of diagnosing, treating and preventing disease.

Why NUNM?

- Extensive community clinic network where students help medically underserved patients
- The largest research facility of any naturopathic school
- Respected faculty of NDs, MDs, DOs and PhDs
- A rigorous, competitive residency program
- Wide range of career options
- Portland, Oregon—the home of natural medicine

Coursework includes:

- Botanical Medicine
- Clinical Nutrition
- Homeopathy
- Hydrotherapy
- Minor Surgery
- Pharmacology
- Physical Medicine

NUNM's Mission

To educate and train physicians, practitioners and preprofessionals in the art, science and research of natural medicine.

Contact Admissions to learn more:

503.552.1660 or 877.669.8737 | admissions@nunm.edu

nunm.edu | Portland, Oregon

Follow us:

