

Clyde B. Jensen, Ph.D.

10125 SE 147th Ave. • Happy Valley, Oregon 97086

cjensen@continuum-biomedical.com

503-760-6906 (residence) 971-244-2802 (mobile)

CAREER DISTINCTIONS:

- Ph.D. in Physiology and Pharmacology
- Taught pharmacology to students of medicine, alternative medicine, nursing and allied health.
- America's youngest medical college president at the age of 32.
- Led seven colleges & universities representing most of healthcare and higher education continuum.
- Consulted for health products industry on science, education, product development and philanthropy.
- Researched and published on pharmacology and interprofessional education.
- Coined the phrase "continuum cleft" to describe the costly gaps that fragment the healthcare and higher education continua and became a leader in "mending the cleft."

EDUCATION:

A.S.	Biology	Ricks College • Rexburg, ID	1968
B.S.	Zoology	Brigham Young University • Provo, UT	1970
M.S.	Physiology	University of North Dakota • Grand Forks, N.D.	1973
Ph.D.	Pharmacology	University of North Dakota • Grand Forks, N.D.	1974

Honorary Doctorate	Canadian College of Naturopathic Medicine • Toronto, Ontario
Honorary Doctorate	National University of Health Sciences • Lombard, IL

FULL-TIME EMPLOYMENT HISTORY (Title, Institution & Selected Accomplishments):

President and Owner 2001 - Present
Continuum Biomedical Consultants, Inc. • Happy Valley, Oregon

Vice President for University Relations and Adjunct Professor 2012 - 2015
University of Western States • Portland, Oregon

Dean of Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) 2010 - 2012
Mt. Hood Community College • Gresham, Oregon

Chairman, Board of Governors and Professor of Pharmacology 2006 – 2010
Provost and Professor of Pharmacology 2009 - 2010
President and Professor of Pharmacology 2005 - 2006
Sint Eustatius School of Medicine (SESOM) • Sint Eustatius, Netherland Antilles

Director of Scientific and Integrative Affairs 2001 - 2006
Standard Process, Inc. • Palmyra, Wisconsin
Standard Process is America's largest and most successful whole foods nutraceutical company. Responsibilities included leadership of research and development, university relations, strategic planning and formation of a celebrated employee wellness program.

President and Professor of Pharmacology 1996 - 2001
National University of Natural Medicine (NUNM) • Portland, Oregon

Senior Executive and Clinical Professor of Medicine 1993 -1997
University of Oklahoma College of Medicine - Tulsa (OUCM-T) • Tulsa, Oklahoma

President (Interim) Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College (NEO A&M) • Miami, Oklahoma	1992-1993
President (Interim) Kansas City University of Medicine and Biology (KCUMB) • Kansas City, Missouri	1991 - 1992
President and Professor of Pharmacology Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine • Tulsa, Oklahoma	1987 -1991
President West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine (WVSOM) • Lewisburg, West Virginia	1981 - 1987
Asst/Assoc Professor of Physiology and Pharmacology (Tenured)	1974 - 1981
Director of Research	1979 – 1981
Assistant Dean for Student Affairs	1976 - 1979
Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery (OkCOMS) • Tulsa, Oklahoma

PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT & CONSULTING HISTORY (Title, Institution)

Executive Consultant and Adjunct Professor - Pharmacology University of Western States	2015 - Present
Adjunct Professor – Pharmacology Oregon College of Oriental Medicine	2013 – Present
Senior Executive Oregon Collaborative for Integrative Medicine	2014 – Present
President Association of Health Sciences Colleges and Universities	2013 - 2016
Adjunct Instructor – Health Sciences Clackamas Community College	2009 - 2010
Adjunct Instructor – Health Sciences University of Wisconsin College of Health Sciences • Milwaukee, Wisconsin	2007 - 2009
Adjunct Professor of Pharmacology Rogers State University • Claremore, Oklahoma	1993-1997
Executive Consultant Southwest College of Natural Medicine (SCNM) • Tempe, AZ	1999-2000

SELECTED BOARD POSITIONS:

Boucher Institute of Naturopathic Medicine	2015 - Present
American College of Healthcare Sciences	2013 - Present
Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education	2011 - Present
Editorial Board Integrative Medicine the Clinician’s Journal	2009 - Present
Naturopathic Post-Graduate Medicine Association	2009 - 2012
Council on Chiropractic Education (CCE)	2003 - 2012

American Red Cross Northwest Blood Services Region	1996 - 2002
Association of American Colleges of Naturopathic Medicine	1998 - 2001
Oregon Association for Multiple Sclerosis	1996 - 2006
American Red Cross Southwest Blood Services Region	1991 - 1996
American Diabetes Association (Oklahoma Chapter)	1987 - 1996
American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine	1981 - 1992
Greenbrier Valley National Bank	1983 - 1987

SELECTED ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Leadership and Management (General Higher Education):

- Led broad range of diverse higher education institutions, including:
 - Associate to Doctoral degrees,
 - Startup to venerated,
 - Public and private
 - Non-profit and proprietary
 - Domestic and foreign
 - Free-standing and comprehensive, multi-campus research universities
- Merged higher education institutions. (Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery with Oklahoma State University)
- Performed urgent turnarounds for colleges troubled by financial exigencies, accreditation sanctions, internal and community turmoil and litigation.

Leadership and Management (Health Sciences Education):

- Only person who has provided higher education leadership in the five primary care physician professions: allopathic, osteopathic, naturopathic, chiropractic and oriental medicine.
- Developed interprofessional health science education courses to mend the health professions continuum cleft.
- Led the development of new degree programs.
- Helped transform health science professions.

International Education:

- Led and taught in a foreign medical school.
- Among the first American scientists to enter post-cold war Russia on humanitarian mission.
- Received an honorary degree from foreign a college.
- Lectured and published in foreign countries.

Leadership and Management (Industry):

- Served as the Director of Scientific Affairs for a $100+ million health products company with executive responsibilities for research, product development, education, professional relations and legislative affairs.
- Developed collaborative research relationships between industry and a research university (University of Wisconsin) that have resulted in state and federal (SBIR) research awards and corporate research contracts.
- Own and operate a successful research and education consulting business.

Teaching:

- Recognized for teaching excellence in several higher education institutions.
- Taught pharmacology to students, residents and practitioners in multiple healthcare professions including: allopathic, osteopathic, naturopathic and oriental medicine, chiropractic, functional medicine, nursing and advanced practice nursing, pharmacy, EMT and allied health
- Taught using conventional classroom and contemporary web-based distance education technologies

Fiscal and Administrative Affairs:

- Direct responsibility for higher education budgets ranging from $10 M to $50 M annually.

- Led higher education institutions from periods of financial austerity to financial prosperity.
- Led major resource recovery and reallocation processes in a major academic medical center (University of Oklahoma).
- Led higher education institutions during periods of campus construction and renovation.

Community Relations and Leadership:

- Served as the president of a large metropolitan chamber of commerce.
- Served on the Boards of major civic organizations including one of America's largest Rotary clubs.
- Selected by City Council as Volunteer of the Year in my city. (Happy Valley, OR)

Higher Education Accreditation:

- Site visitor for regional accrediting bodies.
- Public Board Member on two professional accreditation councils.
- Led higher education institutions accredited by such regional accreditors as the Higher Education Commission and Northwest Association of Colleges and Universities.
- Managed programs accredited by numerous programmatic accrediting bodies including LCME (medical education), AOA (osteopathic medical education), ACGME (graduate medical education), ACCME (continuing medical education), CNME (Naturopathic Medical Education), ACAOM (Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine) and others.

Fund Raising and Philanthropy:

- Secured new and increased existing appropriations from state governments.
- Secured grants, contracts and gifts from foundations and private industry.
- Managed philanthropic giving to higher education and other beneficiaries from industry.

Legislative/Governmental Affairs:

- Testified before House and Senate Committees of the United States Congress regarding student financial aid and funding for graduate medical education.
- Testified before legislative committees in over a dozen states regarding higher education funding and scope of practice for health care professionals.
- At the request of State Systems of Higher Education I have appeared on television and radio talk programs to successfully promote higher education revenue bond and other referenda.

Research:

- Conducted original research and published in peer-reviewed journals in aerospace medicine and pharmacology.
- Served as principal investigator in phase III pharmaceutical clinical trials.
- Conducted scientific peer reviews for research funded by NIH and NASA.
- Established and managed departments of research for higher education and industry.
- Established and managed Institutional Review Boards.
- Continue serve on Editorial Boards of peer reviewed scientific journals.
- Published scientific book reviews at the request of scientific journals.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS:

Jensen, CB. The continuum of health professions. Integr Med Clin J. 2015;14(3):48-53.
 Jensen, CB. The health professions' continuum cleft. Integr Med Clin J. 2015;14(4):28-31.
 Jensen, CB. The intraprofessional continuum and cleft. Submitted for publication, January, 2016.
 Jensen, CB. The therapeutic continuum and cleft. In preparation.

Contact Information:

Clyde B. Jensen • 10125 SE 147th Ave. • Happy Valley, Oregon 97086
 cjensen@continuum-biomedical.com
 503-760-6906 (residence) 971-244-2802 (mobile)