

Elizabeth A. McGlasson
E-mail: emcglasson@nunm.edu

SUMMARY OF SKILLS

- Over six years demonstrated experience as a competent and effective college instructor
- Lifelong calling to work within the fields of education & health
- Demonstrated ability to provide services to diverse populations
- Proven ability to guide, instruct, mentor, and supervise others
- Excellent communication, networking, and facilitation skills
- Demonstrated ability in assessment, research, and program planning
- Passion for culture, human experience, and integrative healing modalities

EDUCATIONAL DEGREES

Master of Public Health: Health Promotion, Portland State University, 2007-2009

Areas of Emphasis: Environmental, Integrative & International Health

Internship: Program Evaluation for Collaborative on Health & the Environment-OR Chapter

Community Organization Project: Neighborhood House Community Gardens

Program Evaluation Project: Lutheran Family Services Mental Health Program

Elective Courses Sought: International Health, Culture of Ecology, Environmental Sustainability, Integrative Health, Sustainable Food Systems, Minority Health & Culture

Member of Gerontology Club

Graduate Research Assistant with Dr. Stephanie Farquhar leading to following publication:

Samples, J., Bergstad, E. A., Ventura, S., Sanchez, V., Farquhar, S. A., & Shadbeh, N. (2009).

Pesticide exposure and occupational safety training of indigenous farmworkers in Oregon. American Journal of Public Health, 99(S3), S581-S584.

Master of Arts in Teaching, Western Oregon University, 2006

Endorsement: Health Education

Student Teaching Experience:

Aurora High School, Aurora, OR January-June 2006

North Bend High School, North Bend, OR August-December 2006

Courses Taught: Personal Health, Social Health, Psychology of Success

Bachelor of Arts in Social Work, University of Portland, 2001-2004

Minor: Spanish, Certificate: Social Justice

Practicum Experience: El Programa Hispano of Catholic Charities, Gresham, OR 2003-2004

Campus Involvement: Freshman Workshop Leader Fall 2002 & 2003, Campus Peer

Health Educator 2002-2003, London Summer Study Abroad 2002 (Courses Taken: Cultural Diversity & Fine Arts), America Reads Mentor, Hunger Awareness Volunteer, International

Friendship Partner Volunteer, International Film Club, Social Work Club (Secretary), Blue Key

Fraternity membership, Alpha Kappa Delta, Phi Alpha Gamma Honor Society

Summer Research Assistant for Dr. Joe Gallegos June-August 2003

Undergraduate Presentations: Social Work Video Fair, National Association of Social Workers of Oregon Conference, Student Table with Nancy Agard-Swiderek, 2004.

Poder en Envejecimiento: A Project of the Hispanic Initiative, BSW Education Conference for the Association of BPD, 2003

OTHER EDUCATION

Massage Training, East West College of Healing Arts, Portland, OR 2013- 2014

Massage Licensure received, 2015, changed to inactive status, 2016

RESEARCH TRAINING

NIH Clinical Research Training, 2017

Atlas Ti Qualitative Analysis Training, Spring 2009.

NIH Protecting Human Subjects in Research Certification, May 2008.

TEACHING, RESEACH & HEALTH RELATED EXPERIENCE

Professor

July 2015-present

Assistant Professor

July 2016-present

Adjunct Professor

July 2015-July 2016

National University of Natural Medicine, Portland, OR

Develop, instruct, and assess various courses in Master of Science in Nutrition and Master of Science in Global Health programs. Mentor students in program completion and professional development, supervise fieldwork and internship placements, and assess progression through programs.

Health Instructor (part-time)

March 2011-present

Portland Community College, Rock Creek Campus

Instruct Personal Health, Stress & Human Health, and Fitness & Health via online and in-person courses.

Utilize various teaching strategies, facilitate discussions, grade and provide feedback on assessments.

Served as Community Based Learning Campus Coordinator Spring Term 2013.

Graduate Research Assistant

September 2008-June 2009

PSU School of Community Health, Portland, OR

Performed data analysis for National Institutes of Health research grant, involving over 150 migrant farmworkers. Compiled findings and jointly wrote findings for AJPH publication. Compiled and submitted documentation for second project phase to Portland State Institutional Review Board.

Substitute and Student Health Teacher

January 2006-December 2007

North Marion High School, Aurora, OR

North Bend School District, North Bend, OR

Served as summer lead teacher for therapeutic school and developed six week curriculum for new program. Assisted and trained fellow staff on instruction modalities. Instructed and assessed sections of Personal Health, Social Health, and Psychology of Success in high schools during academic school year. Served as substitute teacher from February to December 2007, covering courses ranging from technology, business, cultural geography, history, Spanish, PE, art, math, and language arts.

Freshman Workshop Leader

Fall Term 2002 and 2003

Shepard Freshman Resource Center, University of Portland

Assisted in curriculum development and created lesson plans for weekly workshops focused on increasing freshman student college success and increasing life skills. Advised freshman students on scheduling, college success, and other needs.

Peer Health Educator

September 2002-April 2003

University Health Center, University of Portland

Developed and facilitated campus wide health education programs for health promotion, including organizing a holistic health fair. Marketed health center on campus and advised students on health issues.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT RELATED EXPERIENCE

Associate Dean of Academics, School of Graduate Studies

July 2017-present

National University of Natural Medicine, Portland, OR

Implement improvements in assessment and alignment at course, program, and school levels. Participate in CARE Team, Academic Operations Team, Distance Education Taskforce, Institutional Assessment, and various work groups.

Assistant Professor, Master of Science in Global Health Program

July 2015-July 2017

Assisted in development of program improvements for the MScGH degree including mentorship and fieldwork components.

Veterans Resource Center Coordinator

August 2011-August 2012

Portland Community College, Rock Creek Campus

Managed center and assisted students in accessing on campus and community resources. Scheduled and oversaw up to eight employees per academic year. Assisted in development of PCC district-wide veteran taskforce and PCC wide veteran survey. Served as PCC liaison to related community partners and presented on veteran resources. Reviewed monthly budget and provided detailed purchase information. Served as veteran club advisor.

Career Transition Counselor

January 2010-March 2011

Army Career & Alumni Program, Ft Polk, LA

Briefed up to 60 soldiers at a time on transition assistance services. Conducted weekly workshops and instructed federal employment seminar on quarterly basis. Counseled transitioning clients on resources and options. Advised clients on researching and securing employment and/or educational opportunities. Marketed services via tabling and newsletter outreach.

Program Evaluation Intern

March 2009-June 2009

Oregon Environmental Council, Portland, OR

Completed evaluation for Oregon Collaborative for Health and Environment. Developed and analyzed results of survey for 100+ members. Created key informant interview scripts, administered interviews, and performed qualitative analysis. Performed content analysis.

Case Manager

November 2004- August 2005

DHS Child Welfare Services, North Bend, OR

Consulted and assisted families with adoption and teen cases. Adhered to state regulations and facilitated trainings for families. Interviewed clients and presented at internal committees. Coordinated branch Independent Living Program. Provided Spanish translations for clients.

Practicum Student

August 2003-May 2004

El Programa Hispano, 451 NW 1st, Gresham, OR

Provided short-term intervention assistance for Spanish speaking clients. Developed and facilitated introductory computer literacy workshops. Organized and implemented girls' empowerment group at elementary school. Developed and organized volunteer training materials. Researched grant funding opportunities. Designed database and analyzed survey data for community based gang task force.

AFFILIATIONS

Oregon Public Health Association

American Massage Therapist Association